

IN THE SPECIFICATION

Page 12, line 13, change "to" to ~~—too~~—as shown in the replacement paragraph for lines 12-15 on page 12 presented below.

Once removed from these heating sources, the user or caregiver must guess at the temperatures and if too hot can affect the skin of the patient or user and could cause skin damage. In the case of an infant it can also cause death, or long term damage.